

Simulation

Trainer

This Course suits

This one day course is aimed at Individuals who will be delivering the Operations Management Simulation course.

Individuals would be expected to have attended the simulation as a participant before attending this course.

Following the course participants would support a live course as part of their accreditation process.

Content Overview

Operations Simulation structure and learning methodology.

Key course components.

The simulation software, installation, configuration and trouble shooting.

Managing the environment and pace of the course.

Benefits and Outcomes

Participants will be able to support an Operations Management simulation course under the supervision of a qualified trainer.